

A photograph of a green tufted sectional sofa in a living room. The sofa is L-shaped and features deep button tufting on the backrest and seat. It is positioned against a light-colored wall. Above the sofa, a decorative wall hanging consists of several circular frames of various sizes, some containing small images or patterns. To the left, a window is partially visible with light-colored curtains. The floor is covered with a light-colored, patterned rug. The text "Luxe Lounging" is overlaid in a white, cursive font across the center of the sofa.
